

expressed by United States Senators for poor Cuban insurgents. How ridiculous, and how about the poor white inhabitants of Cuba? Spanish subjects, whose whole interests are bound up in the island? Is there no sympathy for them? Surely the latter deserve more than the former. I consider Spain has been grossly calumniated and I venture to think that the self-respecting non-jingo portion of the United States electorate are of the same opinion.

"You see, yourself, what stringent measures I stipulated to the representatives of friendly powers in Madrid, and, indeed, throughout Spain. I will not allow any disturbance of the public peace, and the civil guards in Barcelona charged a crowd of students. The civil guards did well, because I gave orders that they should be no disturbance of the public peace."

ENTHUSIASM IN ECUADOR.
NEW YORK, March 3.—The Herald's correspondent in Guayaquil, Ecuador, says that a grand meeting of the Cubans and those who sympathize with them in the Plaza Rocafuerte. The object was to manifest gratitude toward the United States for the recognition of the belligerence of the Cubans.

BERMUDA TO GO FREE.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The steamship Bermuda, which was recently seized by Federal officers in New York Bay, as she was preparing to sail for Cuba with mail and passengers, has been ordered released by the authorities here. However conclusive the evidence may be that the Bermuda was a filibuster ship, the law and the decisions of the courts clearly prohibit her seizure and confiscation.

FIELD OF POLITICS.
Cullom Favorite in Illinois—Grover a Back Number.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.)
SPRINGFIELD (Ill.) March 3.—The Republican County convention on last night adopted resolutions endorsing Shelby M. Cullom for President of the United States. The Hon. David M. Littler, who presided at the convention, announced that he was authorized to say that Senator Cullom was a candidate for President. The resolutions delegates were instructed for Cullom for President. McKinley received but two votes out of 135 in the convention, but when Gen. Horace Clark of Matteson, candidate for Governor, addressed the convention, the name of McKinley was received with such cheering, as well as that of Cullom.

A great sensation was caused by the speech of J. A. Drake, a young colored lawyer, who was defeated for Representative. He declared the negro must receive recognition from the Republicans; that they were aroused from Calvo to Chicago, and that they were not accorded recognition in November. Other nationalities had obtained recognition from the Republicans, and the negro, in the Republican party, must also be recognized.

MANDERSON FOR FAIR PLAY.
OMAHA, March 3.—Ex-United States Senator Mander son, who has announced his candidacy for the Republican Presidential nomination. In a letter to L. D. Fowler he says: "I am not to be used as a stalking horse or delivery wagon for any party. The people are all my personal friends. I will follow gladly in the ranks under the leadership of any of them. I demand fair play for them. I expect it for myself."

SPRINTED INTO OFFICE.
CRESTON (Iowa), March 3.—John V. Crum, Iowa's fastest sprinter, has been elected City Attorney of Bedford, Iowa.

THROWS GROVER OVERBOARD.
NEW YORK, March 3.—The World tomorrow will say that Mr. Harvitt, chairman of the National Democratic Committee, has maintained silence for many months in respect to charges and issues, but he spoke frankly yesterday to the World. He made three extremely important as well as interesting statements.

First—That he no longer considers Mr. Cleveland as among the possible candidates for President. The twenty delegates named prominently for the place are all my personal friends. I will follow gladly in the ranks under the leadership of any of them. I demand fair play for them. I expect it for myself."

NANSEN'S FIND.
How the News of It Got to European Capitals.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.)
ST. PETERSBURG, March 3.—(By Cable.) Captain Maj. Gen. Svitolitsky, Governor of Irkutsk, telegraphed here in reply to queries regarding the reports as to Dr. Nansen's return, that Peter Ivanovich Kuchneroff, who trades at Ustyanak, under date of November 10, wrote to the merchant Kuchneroff, at Yakutsk, as follows:

"We learn that Dr. Nansen has reached the pole, has discovered hitherto unknown lands, and has now returned. Consequently the Arctic Ocean has now been explored."

Gov. Svitolitsky stated that there is no confirmation of this news from other sources, but he has instructed a member of his administration in the Verkhansk district to proceed to Ustyanak to verify the news and to aid the expedition if necessary.

Peter Ivanovich Kuchneroff is the accredited agent of Dr. Nansen, and has been entrusted with a supply of Eskimo dogs for his expedition. His trading post is at Ustyanak, on the Arctic Ocean at the mouth of the Yana River, just south of Laskovskland, and less than 300 miles east of the Lena Delta.

Chicago Bank Failure.

CHICAGO, March 3.—The Central Trust and Savings Bank, No. 119 La Salle street, failed today. The Chicago Title and Trust Company was appointed assignee, and before the close of banking hours had possession of all the assets. The assets are estimated to be $350,000 or $400,000, and the liabilities $150,000.

Grover Leaves the Capital.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—President Cleveland, accompanied by Private Secretary Thurber, left Washington this morning for New York on the Pennsylvania road. He will preside at the annual meeting of the Board of Home Missions tonight. It is expected that he will arrive in New York at 6 o'clock and will leave on the midnight train, bringing him here at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow morning.

IS THIS CALIFORNIA?

Snow, Hail, Rain and General Cold Weather.
Some Fruit in the North is Damaged.

Almonds Utterly Ruined by Napa.
The Apricots Injured by the Frost. Also in the Door—It Continues.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.)
SAN FRANCISCO, March 3.—The cold weather still continues. During the day there have been alternate showers of rain and hail here, but no more snow. Minimum temperature in San Francisco was 33 deg., and the maximum, 47 deg., in Sacramento Valley. Reports to the Associated Press from Gilroy, Pacific Grove and Santa Cruz state that snow has fallen. On low ground the snow melted in a short time but it still remains on the hills and mountains. At Calistoga the snow has fallen to a depth of ten inches and is still on the ground. The Weather Bureau predicts slightly warmer weather for Northern California with showers in southeastern portion. Heavy rains have fallen in Southern California and some crops have been damaged by the cold in Northern California, but not to any great extent so far as reported. Napa reports that almonds are almost ruined and apricots are injured by the cold.

Fruit-growers are generally apprehensive over the outcome, although the frost has not done as much damage as has been so far. The danger lies in the fact that the trees in many places are in bloom, and a frost at this time would do great damage.

In this city the snowstorm which began yesterday continued at intervals throughout the night, and this morning the snow was still on the ground. The snow is in the eastern fashion. The snow was mixed with rain and melted as soon as it fell. The snow is in the eastern fashion. The snow was mixed with rain and melted as soon as it fell. The snow is in the eastern fashion. SNOW AT PRESCOTT.
PRESCOTT (Ariz.) March 3.—The heaviest snowstorm of the season set in here this evening about 5 o'clock, and has been snowing over for two hours, and about six inches over the ground. The storm is a welcome visitor to all in the Colorado line, for both stock and mining is getting scarce. Many stamp mills are compelled to either suspend operations entirely or run only part of the time on account of the scarcity of water.

SNOW GENERALLY FALLING.
PHOENIX (Ariz.) March 3.—Snow is falling generally over Northern Arizona and high winds are prevalent all over the southern portion.

THREE STORM CENTERS.
Massachusetts Coast, Northern California and Western Gulf Coast.
CHICAGO, March 3.—Forecast of Henry J. Cox said today: "There are three storm centers in the country this morning; one off the Massachusetts coast, another over Northern California, a third over the western Gulf Coast. Rain is falling in Oklahoma, Kansas, Texas, Nebraska, Iowa, Minnesota, the Dakotas and Western Illinois."

The storm continues very cold in the extreme Northwest, the temperature having fallen still further in the Rocky Mountain region in the past 24 hours. At Helena, Mont., the temperature is 32 deg. below zero, and 18 deg. below at Helena and Lander, Wyo. There is prospect of very cold weather in the Western States for several days."

THE EASTERN STORM.
Kansas is Swept by a Very Severe Blizzard.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.)
TOPEKA (Kan.) March 3.—A severe blizzard has been sweeping over Kansas for six hours. On the Rock Island's Colorado line two inches of snow is reported, and the storm is moving east at the rate of forty miles an hour. Stockmen say the storm will be severe on thousands of head of cattle in the plains, and grave apprehension is felt for the fruit crop, as the recent frost of warm spring weather has brought out the buds, and in Southern Kansas the leaves on the trees have begun to make their appearance.

THE FEUD ENDED.
President Jones of the Memphis National Bank Shot.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.)
ST. LOUIS (Mo.) March 3.—A special to the Republic from Memphis, Tenn., says that John R. Jones, president of the Memphis National Bank, was mortally wounded and his son Nat dangerously hurt in a shooting affray there today. The elder Jones died at 8 o'clock tonight.

The father and son left the bank to go to dinner about noon today. On the street they met William Pardue, an attorney, and a man named Scarborough. There had been a feud of long standing between Pardue and Jones and not ten words passed before shooting began. D. D. Dock, a son-in-law of Jones, says that Pardue and his companion were the aggressors. John R. Jones received a pistol ball in the right temple that ranged down and came out at the mouth and shattered the jaw. Another bullet went through his shoulder. Another struck him in the thigh. Nat Jones was wounded in the hip. Pardue was placed under arrest.

HE THREW SNOWBALLS.
Cold-blooded Shooting of a San Francisco Youth.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.)
SAN FRANCISCO, March 3.—Edward McCarthy, a young man 13 years old, was shot and seriously wounded by an unknown man today.

McCarthy and about a dozen other boys were standing in front of a fruit store throwing snowballs at some small boys. The unknown man drove up in his buggy and threatened to shoot the boys if they pelted him. When he passed them he reached out at the boy who severely wounded McCarthy with the right hip. There were nearly a score of eye-witnesses to the affair, and they say the deed was done in cold blood. A long chase was made, but the man whipped up his horse and escaped.

FLASHES FROM THE WIRES

A Stamford (Conn.) dispatch says that Rev. Taitcock, D.D., secretary of the House of Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church, died.

GLENDORA, March 3.—(Regular Correspondence.) Glendora farmers are whistling "Minnie Ha-Ha" as a kind of parody on the threatened drought. J. W. Wood, who is in charge of the weather here, reported at noon today a total rainfall for the season of 10.15 inches. The present storm amounts to 1.15 inches, and the total rainfall for the season of 11.30 inches.

Within the past few days the local nurseries have been receiving orders for trees from Fresno, Porterville and other points north. J. M. Menefee, who recently closed his business here, is interested in the Glendora street, is making extensive improvements on his farm south of town.

S. W. Wood is doubling the capacity of his reservoir by building the walls higher. He has one of the finest orchards in the city. The orchard is in the city. The orchard is in the city.

THE HOME MISSIONS

Great Presbyterian Assemblage at New York.
President Cleveland Chairman of the Meeting.

The Platform Crowded with Prominent Ministers—What the Presiding Officer Said—The Rev. Talmage Talks.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.)
NEW YORK, March 3.—One of the most important meetings held in recent years in favor of the home mission movement of the Presbyterian church was that which took place in Carnegie Music Hall tonight. The importance of the occasion was emphasized by the appearance as presiding officer of the meeting, of President Cleveland. Every available spot in the hall was crowded and an overflow meeting was held in the lower hall.

The platform was crowded with prominent ministers and laymen of the Presbyterian church. When President Cleveland appeared, at 8 o'clock, accompanied by Rev. Dr. John Hall of the Fifth-avenue Presbyterian Church, he was received with tumultuous applause, the whole audience rising and waving handkerchiefs. When the applause had subsided, Dr. Hall introduced President Cleveland as chairman.

Rev. Dr. Sheldon Jackson, superintendent of missions of Alaska, followed. Rev. Dr. DeWitt Talmage, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Washington, D. C., said: "Our glorious Presbyterianism is in full bloom tonight. This will be an historical meeting and far down the years will be told that in the commercial metropolis of this nation the man who has on him the highest honors this world can give, and twice having received these honors from the American people, in this great mass-meeting, for God and righteousness, put down the grandeur of his office and took the place of a man for scholarship, England for manufacturing, France for manners, Egypt for antiquities, Italy for pictures, and America for God."

Rev. Charles L. Thompson, chairman of the Committee on Home Missions of the Presbyterian missions of New York, spoke in the zeal of his mission. The last speaker was Booker T. Washington, the controlling spirit of the great industrial school for negroes at Tuskegee, Ala. The speaker made an earnest plea for missionary endeavor in the black belt of the South. He quoted statistics to show that, during the past year, 100,000 colored children in this district had expended on their education about 70 cents, as compared with the $15 or 20 expended on the Massachusetts child.

ITALIANS DEFEATED.
LICKED TO A FINISH BY THE ABYSSINIANS.
Intense Excitement Prevails at Home—No Attempt to Minimize the Disaster—King Humbert's Demand.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.)
ROME, March 3.—(By Atlantic Cable.) It is reported today that Gen. Baratieri, commander of the Italian forces in Africa, who suffered another severe reverse at the hands of the Shoa, while advancing on Abbassir, was wounded. The Italian army was divided into three columns under Gen. Baratieri, Gen. Arimondi and Gen. Bormida, with a brigade under Gen. Elens as a reserve. According to the correspondent in Africa of the Popolo Romano, half the Italian artillery and all provisions were lost. Other advices report 3000 Italian soldiers killed and among them Gen. Albertone and Darnicchia.

This evening, it is rumored, Gen. Baratieri, when he became aware of the full extent of the disaster, wrote to his successor and then shot himself. At the Ministry of War this was discredited. As the evening wore on and the news of the Italian defeat was confirmed, the inhabitants gave way to rage against the government. Bands of young men began parading the streets shouting, "Down with Crispi!" and "Down with the king!"

"No one charged with the duties and responsibilities which necessarily weigh upon your chief executive can fail to appreciate the importance of religious teachings and Christian endeavor in the newly acquired territory of Africa. It is there where hot and stubborn warfare between the forces of good and evil is constantly invited. In the hands of the vanguard of civilization in a new settlement is never without its vicious and criminal element. Gambling houses and dram-shops are frequently among the first establishments in a new colony. It is not only the confessed that tend to ruin old homes and associations to new and more primitive homes has a tendency among honest and responsible citizens to react against the military reverses sustained by the Italians. Among the countless rumors which are flying about in the excited state of the public mind, it is stated that the government will postpone the meeting of Parliament which has been fixed for March 5.

The latest news reports are to the effect that Gen. Arimondi, who commanded one of the Italian columns in the disastrous engagement, is also missing, and that Gen. Elens, who commanded the reserves, was slightly wounded. Small disturbances, mainly by students, are reported to have occurred in the provinces today. Demonstration was also attempted in Rome tonight, but was quickly suppressed.

King Humbert had a long interview with the President of the Senate tonight. According to the Italo King Humbert insists that Premier Crispi shall present himself in the chamber and shall ask for a vote by which the government may be guided in its future decisions. The cabinet will meet again tomorrow and it is not believed it will accept the resignation.

The Marquis di Rudini presided over a meeting of the opposition leaders tonight. The opinion prevailed that every demand made by the government for the relief of Abyssinia should be granted, but not to the present government. The meeting then adjourned until tomorrow, in order to address a protest to King Humbert in the event of the cabinet not resigning.

It is reported that Gen. Baratieri attacked the Shoa, because he had heard the Shoa chiefs with a portion of the troops would be attending the coronation of the Negus at Addis Ababa. He hoped this to surprise and disperse them.

Citing to the aid of the Italian reverse, the Pope has ordered that a Te Deum be sung in St. Peter's. The celebration of the anniversary of his coronation of the Negus at Addis Ababa. The opinion demands that Gen. Baratieri should be punished for defeat.

The reforms demand that the meeting of Parliament be postponed until tomorrow. Gen. Badassera assumes command of the Italian troops in Abyssinia today.

WHY HE BLUNDERED.
LONDON, March 3.—The Rome correspondent of the Times says: "With out doubt the primary cause of Gen. Baratieri's blunder was the constant clamor of the Italian journals over his inaction."

Rome dispatch to the Daily News says the cabinet has resigned, but that King Humbert has refused to accept the resignations. Gen. Baratieri will be recalled and Gen. Vasta will take command.

if we could not hope that churches and religious teachings would from the first be on the ground to oppose the evil influences that are apt to pervade the beginning of organized communities. These churches and religious teachings were never needed than now, on our distant frontiers, where the process of forming new States is going on so rapidly, and where new-comers who are to be the citizens of new States are so rapidly gathering together. If we turn from the objects of home-missionary work to the situation of those actually toiling in distant fields, for God and humanity and a purer, better citizenship, our sympathy with their work must be the quicker and of more intense duty to them and their cause actively stimulated."

DON IS JEALOUS.

Funny Incident Connected with an Ambassadorship.
Dickinson Mad Because Uhl Went to Germany.

He Was Recommending that Another Man Be Appointed—Mulligan Does Not Want to Go to Cape Town.

(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TIMES.)
WASHINGTON, March 3.—(Special Dispatch.) The appointment of ex-Assistant Secretary of State Uhl to be Ambassador at Germany was called a little hard feeling between the President and the premier of his kitchen cabinet. Don M. Dickinson of Michigan. Uhl is a personal friend and political protégé of Dickinson, and it was upon his recommendation that he was offered the post of Assistant Secretary of State, after having declined one or two other places that were not to his liking.

Dickinson had no idea of allowing his protégé to any further, and he is understood to be quite jealous of the new honors conferred upon Uhl. During the illness of Secretary Gresham Uhl was thrown in frequent contact with President Cleveland, and together they transacted much important business of state. President Cleveland took a fancy to the assistant secretary with whose work in the department he was greatly pleased, and assured him some time ago that when there should be a desirable vacancy on the diplomatic corps he should have it.

When Ambassador Runyon died, therefore, Uhl came at once to the mind of the President as the proper man to succeed him, and he offered him the place, which the latter was glad to accept for several reasons. One of which was that, being Assistant Secretary of State under the jurisdiction of Olney was not the pleasantest position in the world. Dickinson, however, not being aware of the contemplated promotion of Uhl, was naturally surprised at the appointment of Judge Lambert Tree of Chicago to succeed Runyon, but for once Don's influence with Cleveland was ineffective.

MULLIGAN DECLINES.
NEW YORK, March 3.—(Special Dispatch.) The Herald's Washington special says that the President's offer to the consul-generalship at Cape Town, under the provision of the Consular and Diplomatic act signed a few days ago by the President, was placed in the $3000 salary class, instead of $2000, as it has been heretofore. Mulligan did not think the salary was large enough to pay him to accept the place.

No indications can be had tonight as to whom the President will nominate in Mulligan's stead. The President is anxious to get a good man as consul-general at Cape Town, as he will have jurisdiction over several important matters arising in South Africa, particularly in connection with the trial in April of Hammond and other Americans arrested for alleged participation in Jameson's raid.

Peace Won by War.
(Portland, Ore., Oregonian.) A suggestive remark made by Judge Williams in his recent address was that Lincoln exemplified the sentiment, "Peace on earth, good-will to men." The saying is somewhat remarkable, as Lincoln's preeminent work was done during a period of war, but the peace that came through the war of the rebellion was not the first or the last peace it has been found necessary to fight for. We had to fight 1776 for peace with England, and again in 1812. The latest example we have had of peace through the sword was the war between China and Japan. Japan secured peace, and at the same time promoted civilization in Formosa, by fighting; and, if her guns had made the more assured peace, it is likely we should have no peace from European aggression—what means British aggression—in this country till we have gained it the more assured peace.

Whether this evasion can be continued is not known. At any rate the back runs, and Cullom is giving the Orange city fathers the ha-ha.

IN SOCIAL SPHERES.

The reception given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. E. J. Stimson, in honor of Mrs. J. J. Fay of Chicago, was a very brilliant affair, and, notwithstanding the pouring rain, the handsome residence on West Adams street was thronged with guests between the hours of 3 and 8.

Mrs. Stimson was assisted in receiving by Mrs. E. J. Stimson, T. D. Stimson, Willard Stimson, Godfrey Holterhoff, Will Bishop and Barker. The pretty rooms lent themselves readily to the beautiful decorations arranged by Reeves, and the result was rarely artistic. Potted palms and foliage plants, feathery bamboos and trails of smilax were used lavishly about the reception hall, while arched over the wide doorway were date palms. In the punch-room, presided over by Miss Hattie Kimball in yellow satin with garniture of yellow ostrich tips, were used masses of purple violets and white freesias, blending in lovely harmony with the pale yellow tints of the room. The large bowl of frozen violet punch rested upon a round mirror inlaid in a mass of violets and smilax; the frieze, in Louis Quinze design, was formed of garlands of smilax and violets, dainty baskets of violets and freesias, tied with violet satin ribbons, being suspended by delicate strings of smilax from the points of the festoons. The mantel was backed with the same fragrant flowers and maidenhair ferns, and held more of the tiny baskets. Masses of violets and smilax were artistically arranged in the library, and the corridors were filled with bamboo. In the dining-room the scene was exceedingly lovely. In the center of the table was an oblong mirror, appearing like a miniature lake, with islands upon which seemed to grow tiny palms and maidenhair ferns. The table was elegantly set with a mass of purple and white violets and maidenhair ferns. Broad violet satin ribbon was arranged in loose bows and festoons, caught with clusters of violets and trails of smilax. Diagonally at either end was a tall crystal vase and a bowl filled with freesias and ferns. The table was charmingly presided over by those pretty sisters, the Misses Wellborn, Miss Dot in pink satin and chiffon, and Miss Lillian in white satin and chiffon. The mantel was backed with the violets and freesias, and a graceful frieze was arranged of smilax. The refreshments, which were very dainty, were served under the direction of Mary Ten. The mandolin orchestra, stationed in the upper hall, rendered delightful music during the afternoon.

Mrs. E. J. Stimson was lovely in broad edged silk, the skirt of black, with stripes of pale tints, and the Louis Quinze coat of green brocade, with sleeves of green velvet, and garniture of sable edging and point lace. Mrs. Fay wore an elegant gown of blue and black, with black mouseline de sole, and a wide white belt. The vest was of pale blue satin, applied with white lace. Mrs. Waters was in black brocade, with lace and jet. Mrs. T. D. Stimson's very handsome gown was of black brocade, with garniture of black embroidered mouseline de sole, over sleeves of old rose satin, and iridescent passementerie. Mrs. Willard Stimson was very handsome in a waist of lavender silk, trimmed with green velvet lace and iridescent passementerie, which was worn with a skirt of black moire. Mrs. Holterhoff was in pale blue broadcloth, trimmed with bands of marten and gold and jet passementerie. Mrs. Barker wore gray cloth, with beaver edging, and a vest of white satin. Mrs. Bishop was in old rose silk with edging of black Persian lamb. Among the guests were: Mrs. A. C. Jones, G. A. Caswell, G. P. Carpenter, J. A. Henderson, J. F. Frisland, N. C. Bailey, Theodore Brothers, G. C. Vase, Olin Wellborn, H. G. Brooks, Willoughby Rodman, J. S. Voeburg, Den Mason, W. M. Van Dyke, L. W. Blinn, Irving L. Blinn, J. B. Ghyne, William Niles, J. A. AN INFORMAL EVENING.
Mr. and Mrs. J. H. F. Peck entertained informally, but very delightfully, Monday evening, in honor of their guests, Dr. and Mrs. L. M. Bingham, of Burlington, Vt. Prof. Wormser rendered a fascinating musical program during the evening, and a delicious supper was served. The decorations were very artistic, consisting of La France roses in the drawing-room, nasturtiums in the library, marguerites and ferns in the hall, and ferns and daffodils in the dining-room. Those present were: Dr. and Mrs. Bingham, Dr. and Mrs. Granville MacGowan, Dr. Bryant, Dr. Ralph Williams, Dr. and Mrs. Worthington, Dr. and Mrs. Clark, Dr. and Mrs. Pepper, Dr. and Mrs. Moore, Dr. and Mrs. Westlake, Dr. Ainsworth, Dr. and Mrs. Nixon, Dr. and Mrs. Davidson, Dr. and Mrs. Walter Lindley, Dr. Carl Kurtz, and Mrs. E. W. Peck. The guests were laid for sixteen and ten tables, was handsomely decorated with fruit and flowers. From a mass of red geraniums about the chandelier, were swung baskets of smilax to the corners of the room. The place cards were tied with red ribbons, and the inscription card, with the guest's name, an appropriate allusion to the color of the ribbon. AN INFORMAL PARTY.
An informal dancing party was given in Turnverein Hall last evening. Arnold's Orchestra furnished the music. Among those present were: Maj. and Mrs. John T. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Stimson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Widney, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Byrne, Mrs. Lyons, St. Paul, Miss McArthur and Mrs. Somerville, of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, Miss Davis of St. Joseph, Miss Wood of Hopkinton, Ky.; Miss Belknap of Carson

Despaired Because His Divorced Wife Refused Reconciliation.
Rudolph Steinhelm came near death yesterday. He was found at the Jackson House on Third and Main streets, just falling into the sleep of death from the effects of an overdose of laudanum, and it was only by the hard work of the jailers and trustees at the Police Station that his life was saved.

Steinhelm had at midnight sufficiently recovered from the effects of the poison to explain the cause of death, and he subsequently urged his former wife to again live with him. But she refused.

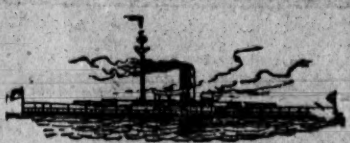

He sought laudanum at Sale & Son's drug store about an hour before his dangerous condition was ascertained. The woman bears every mark of respectability and has had a hard time in securing work.

WOULD-BE MEN

And "Has-Beens" Are the Melancholy Fates of Too Many of Our Younger Generation

IF YOU HAVE ERRED IN YOUR YOUTH, IF your eyes lack luster, if you have used your system up, if you have disordered your liver or misused your kidneys, you should take the Great Hudson. You can get it for certain diseases, but you must first make application to the Hudson Medical Institute.

Hudson cures certain forms of liver and kidney affections, impairs vitality and loss of strength. Hudson is efficacious where other remedies have failed.

Hudson will stop the wasting away of tissue and will build up the nervous system. Hudson strengthens, invigorates and tones the entire system. Hudson cures certain forms of lost manhood, certain peculiar cases of shattered nerves. Hudson is the Great Hudson. Write to the Hudson Medical Institute.

TAINTED BLOOD—Impure blood, due to secretions of the liver, carries a myriad of non-producing germs. These germs are the cause of skin diseases, such as eczema, psoriasis, and other skin ailments. You can get a good liver regulator, and this you should take at once. You can get it from Hudson by writing for "Blood Book" to the Hudson Medical Institute, Stockton, Market and Ellis streets.

LIVER—When your liver is affected you may feel tired, melancholy, irritable and easily discontented. You will notice many symptoms that you really have and many that you really do not have. You need a good liver regulator, and this you should take at once. You can get it from Hudson by writing for "Blood Book" to the Hudson Medical Institute, Stockton, Market and Ellis streets.

KIDNEY—Remedies are now sought for by many men, because so many men live rapid lives—up to their necks in their work. If you wish to have your kidneys put in good order send for our Kidney Regulator, or, better, learn something about your kidneys, and how to make the test. ANNOUNCEMENT

EXTRAORDINARY.

We have been obliged to defer the opening of our Millinery Department on account of the non-arrival of our great Parisian artist "Koeller," for, like Patti, Bernhardt and all women of genius, her ways and not our ways have to be consulted. To have our Millinery Opening without her would be like having the play of "Hamlet" with Hamlet left out. But as she is now en route from New York, we announce our Grand Opening for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, March 8th, 9th and 10th, when we will show a line of Paris Pattern Hats and Bonnets imported by us especially for this occasion. We are confident that the artistic taste of the ladies of Southern California, for whose benefit the management of the Boston Store has, at great expense, secured her services.

ORANGE COUNTY.

THE SANTA ANA TRUSTEES HOLD AN INTERESTING SESSION.

Christian Citizenship League and Ministerial Association Heard From - Street Superintendent Nash's Narrow Escape-Term Trial Jurors-News Notes.

SANTA ANA, March 3.—(Regular Correspondence.) The City Trustees met Monday evening in the City Hall with all members, except Harvey, present.

The reports of the city officers were read and ordered filed. Resolution No. 101, declaring its intention to improve a portion of Fourth street, namely, the laying of a cement sidewalk on the north side of the street between French and Mortimer streets, was passed by a full vote of the members present.

The report of the Committee on Purchasing Gravel was accepted and the committee instructed to close the trade on one acre, from Arthur Fitzpatrick for $150.

A cement sidewalk on the west side of French street from Fourth to Sixth street and on the south side of Fruit street from French street to the track of the Southern Pacific Railroad, was voted upon, but the motion was lost. The proposition to order down a cement sidewalk on the east side of French street from Fourth to First street and on the east side of Bush street from Fourth to First street, shared a similar fate.

The communication from the Christian Citizenship League and Ministerial Association relative to the re-enforcement of liquor ordinance No. 192, was read and the ordinance was ordered to be enforced.

The Street Superintendent was instructed to purchase fifty shut-off boxes for the Santa Ana waterworks.

When the bill of James C. Scarborough, for $50, came up, Z. B. West offered to reimburse the city for that amount, but the board, on motion, rejected the offer and the bill was ordered to be paid.

THE BOARD ADJOURNED TO MEET MONDAY, MARCH 16, 1896.

WANT THE ORDINANCE ENFORCED.

The Santa Ana Christian Citizenship League and the Ministerial Association have petitioned the City Council in the matter of re-enforcement of liquor ordinance No. 192, known to the public as the "Pomona Liquor Ordinance." The petition was presented Monday evening, and is as follows:

SANTA ANA (Cal.), Feb. 28, 1896.

To the members of the Santa Ana City Council—Gentlemen: Whereas, at the last election the people of Santa Ana voted affirmatively on an amendment known as the "Pomona Liquor Ordinance," which vote was afterward rendered operative by the City Council passing ordinance No. 192, regulating the sale, etc., of intoxicants within the city of Santa Ana; and whereas, Judge Towler has decided that a portion of said ordinance is unconstitutional, and that by this decision the whole of sec. 5 has been rendered inoperative, therefore be it

Resolved, by this meeting of the Christian Citizenship League, representing all shades of political opinion, that we respectfully memorialize the City Council to rescind the ordinance of the will of the people given at the last election as representing their views in relation to the licensing of saloons until a majority vote is given, and to enforce, or, if necessary, reenact, all of the provisions of ordinance No. 192, except such portion of sec. 5 as has been declared by Judge Towler unconstitutional.

The above was unanimously adopted at a meeting of the Santa Ana Christian Citizenship League, held on February 28, 1896, and by the Ministerial Association, on February 29, 1896.

(Signed) R. A. ROWLAND, Com. on resolutions, and J. COOPER, Secretary of the Association.

TOO TOUGH TO KILL.

Street Superintendent C. M. Nash, although a little bungled up, and disfigured, is still in the ring. He thought his time had come last Sunday night, but thanks to a quantity of good Jersey cream, olive oil, a stomach pump and a considerable physician, he still lives, moves and has his being, besides a little more of the constitution that is apparently impervious to acetic acid, ammonia, laudanum, etc.

The trouble was like this: Mr. Nash was suffering from a severe cold and cough, so during the night his good wife got up and went to the medicine shelf to get her husband a dose of the cough remedy. A glass not being convenient she handed the bottle to Mr. Nash, at the same time requesting him to take a "big glass of swig." Mr. Nash held the bottle and swallowed a quantity of the medicine, although it almost took his breath away. Realizing at once that something was wrong, Mr. Nash hastily made a light, and examining his mouth and throat, found that it was horribly burned. An investigation of the bottle and contents showed that the mistake had been made; that a very strong horse liniment, composed largely of acetone, ammonia, and laudanum, had been swallowed instead of the soothing cough remedy used by their daughter. Rich cream and olive oil were freely used until a physician and a stomach pump arrived, when relief was rendered the thoroughly-frightened Mr. Nash. The gentleman is now able to attend to his official duties, although he looks a little worse for the wear. Mr. Nash thinks perhaps he is too tough to kill. But his cough is cured.

THE SUPERVISORS.

The Supervisors of Orange county met again today, all members being present.

County Recorder Scott appeared before the board and asked for assistance in preparing the abstract of mortgages and the abstract of property sold to the State as provided by section 26 of the Political Code. The request for the assistance was granted.

Salvadoro Bolina, Jesus Pacho and E. B. Allen were indicted from the indictment list.

The demands of J. A. Champlain, J. Rubleman, E. G. Flennay and J. M. Lacy, on account of automobiles, were referred to the District Attorney. The demand of J. B. Pierce was also referred to the District Attorney and when the matter came up in the afternoon session the board refused to allow any more of the claim than had been previously allowed. The District Attorney was instructed to pass upon the demand of L. Z. Huntington, Horticultural Commissioner from the northern end of the county.

The demands on the treasury from

No. 425 to 527 inclusive were audited and ordered paid.

The Auditor's balance, Treasurer's report, joint report of the chairman of the Board of Supervisors and the County Auditor were received, read and ordered filed.

Two hundred dollars was ordered transferred from the general fund to the Anaheim road fund and a similar amount from the general fund to the Newport road fund, after which the board adjourned to meet Monday, March 16, 1896.

SOUTHERN IN COURT.

Garrett Southern, charged with the murder of Mariano Cuero in this city on the night of October 1, 1893, was arraigned in the Superior Court today. He gave his true name as Gray Garrett Southern. When called upon to plead, he answered "not guilty." The trial was then set for Tuesday, March 31. The defendant has employed Los Angeles counsel to assist local counsel in the case.

TERM TRIAL JURORS.

Term trial jurors were drawn by the clerk of the Superior Court as follows: W. B. Winans, J. R. Congdon, G. G. Godfrey, I. L. Collins, A. E. Yale, Ed. Waite, H. B. Lewis, Jacob Ross, J. H. Calver, H. P. Stone, Charles L. Stine, James R. Kelley, Albert Lee, C. W. Fox, A. B. Case, Charles Carlson, Asa Allen, P. W. Ehlen, J. S. Rice, P. Holmgren, William Jerome, H. Neill, R. H. Dibble, E. S. Nash, A. R. Dwyer, W. Doremus, R. B. Cook, H. K. Snow, M. H. Bear and George Minter.

SAN BERNARDINO COUNTY.

THE SPORTS HOLD A LIVELY COCK FIGHT.

The Trusteeship Controversy—The Storm Continues—One of the Oldsters Suddenly To Aid the Armenians.

SAN BERNARDINO, March 3.—(Regular Correspondence.) The session of the City Council tonight (Tuesday) promises to be decidedly interesting, inasmuch as the returns from Monday's election will be opened. There were 203 votes cast, of which two were thrown out, on account of error. Mr. Kachub having been indicted by a large majority of the voters of the Second Ward, on a unanimous pledge of the Trustees that whoever the people should select would be seated as a member to fill the vacancy, that pledge having been repudiated informally by two Trustees later on, conditions are such that one can only guess at the outcome.

THE STORM.

The rainfall Monday night resulted in .85 of an inch precipitation, doing a vast amount of good. The mountains have been loaded with snow to a depth of several inches. One of the novel features of the storm was the fact that the head on the mountain stand out more conspicuously than ever. It is a body of pure white, while all about it is a grayish appearance.

One-half inch of snow fell here this evening, followed by a heavy rain.

TO RELIEVE ARMENIANS.

A mass-meeting has been called by the united churches for Friday evening to raise funds to aid the Armenians. There are several natives of Armenia in San Bernardino, and letters received by them from friends at the scene of the massacre, given the horrors of the local bearing. Several of the letters will be read at the meeting, and it is hoped a considerable fund will be raised.

LIVELY COCK FIGHT.

The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals is having an opportunity to score a point Sunday at Col's racetrack, owing to the secrecy maintained regarding the cock fight there. Two hundred people were congregated to witness a brutal fight between green game cocks at 3 p.m.

Policeman Tom Carter and George Brazelton of this place furnished the birds for the first fight, each being armed with a knife and a quarter gaff. Brazelton's bird succeeded in driving its steel spur into the lung of Carter's bird, Brazelton taking the money.

The second contest was between birds owned by John Jackson and George Brazelton, and the third event was between birds owned by Charles Wikom and Tom Carter, but neither of the contests was designed to please the crowd, as none of the birds were killed.

It is said sports are preparing for a fight between a bulldog and a quarter gaff. Brazelton's bird succeeded in driving its steel spur into the lung of Carter's bird, Brazelton taking the money.

LAWYERS IN CONTEMPT.

In a petty case before Justice Knox this morning, Deputy District Attorney Spracher and Attorney George B. Cole passed the day and were only prevented from coming to blows by the interference of Constable West. The two attorneys were commanded to appear before the court and to show cause why they should not be fined for contempt.

SANTA BARBARA COUNTY.

Krusmeyer, the Murderer, Said to Be Insane—Notes.

SANTA BARBARA, March 3.—(Regular Correspondence.) This section experienced a most terrific rain and hail storm last night. The rain came down in sheets, accompanied by the loudest thunder and lightning. Many of the rain gauges were so full of hail this morning as to make it impossible to measure the rainfall. On the mountain tops and in the cañons surrounding Santa Barbara, there is snow which came with the storm.

The rain gauge at the freight depot of the Southern Pacific railroad registered this (Tuesday) morning 1 1/4 inches. Reports from other sections in the county also show that the storm has been general and that the crops have been saved from a threatening drought. In and around Lompoc the condition of grain and grass was becoming very serious and it appeared as if the agricultural interests of that section were ruined, at least for the present. Now all is changed and the dairymen of Lompoc will have a prosperous year.

TO BE TRIED FOR INSANITY.

District Attorney A. A. Oglesby has decided not to try Krusmeyer for the murder of Father Bergmeyer, but have his sanity inquired into. Mr. Oglesby came to this conclusion after a consultation with Father Stockman, who is in charge of the parochial church of Santa Barbara. Krusmeyer will be examined before Judge Cope tomorrow morning by Drs. Casal and Knox.

THE ENOCH TALBOT.

A boat which seamen about the wharf say is the Enoch Talbot with a cargo of Los Angeles oil for San Francisco, which bark put to sea from San Pedro Monday. It was seen today by the off Port Los Angeles. The vessel is considered remarkable, for Capt. Johnson said to a Times reporter just before departing from San Pedro that he expected, with the fair wind prevailing, he would only consume two or three days in sailing to San Francisco. Her presence at so short a distance from

RIVERSIDE COUNTY.

LOCAL POLITICS MUCH WARMER THAN THE WEATHER.

Little Danger, but Much Benefit from the Storm—The City Trustees Had a Meeting—A Generous Fall of Snow.

RIVERSIDE, March 3.—(Regular Correspondence.) Reports coming in from back parts of the county indicate that a small amount of damage was done by the frost of Sunday night. At Banning, the almond crop was quite badly injured. In some cases the sprout buds were nipped. The total damage, however, is very slight compared to the immense benefit derived from the storm. The vast amount of snow which accumulated upon the mountains guarantees to all points in the county an abundant supply of water for irrigation.

CITY POLITICS.

The Reflex has fairly opened the Trustee controversy for the coming election by endorsing Mr. Kingman for reelection. This makes that gentleman the first candidate before the people. The only criticism ever offered against Mr. Kingman is that he has opposed the licensing of saloons, and naturally will be opposed by those who favor license.

George Ward is in the field as a candidate for City treasurer against Mr. Bowman, the incumbent. Those gentlemen were competitors in the last city election.

CITY TRUSTEES.

Notwithstanding that the session of the Trustees this (Tuesday) afternoon was attended by a number of citizens and representatives of the railroad companies having applications for franchises under consideration.

The monthly reports of the Marshal, Recorder, Superintendent of Fire Department, and Chief of Fire Department, were received and approved. The Marshal's report showed collections of $24,480.75.

Judge Lucas, on behalf of A. P. Maginnis, asked permission of the court to apply for a franchise to provide for the election of library trustees. The same was granted.

The matter of electing library trustees was brought up by Mr. Morse, Attorney Purinton held that the old board hold office during good behavior under the law. Mr. Morse, however, people should be given an opportunity to express their preferences as to the ordinance. He moved that the election of library trustees be postponed until the election of library trustees. Mr. Morse stood alone on the motion, and the ordinance was unanimously adopted.

The petition of the Arlington-street Railway Company for a franchise was referred to the committee on franchises and to the committee on the petition of the Arlington-street Railway Company for a franchise to provide for the election of library trustees. The same was granted.

A new petition for a franchise was received from A. P. Maginnis of the Southern California Railway. It provides for a route leading across country and terminates on Market street, parallel with the motor road. The petition was referred to a committee of the board to report on the petition.

A batch of remonstrances against the franchises went over for consideration next week.

A SNOWSTORM.

A remarkable spectacle was presented this afternoon, the hills about town being covered with snow, which came down to within a few hundred feet of orange orchards in many cases. Upper valleys in the mountains were completely covered with snow, and the people experienced heavy snowfall, and grave apprehension as to the effect of the storm.

SANTA MONICA.

Arrival of Ship Philadelphia from Hamburg.

SANTA MONICA, March 3.—(Regular Correspondence.) The German ship Philadelphia, arrived Port Los Angeles this morning, having been on her way from Hamburg. She is loaded with cement. She came east of Catalina Island instead of around by Point Conception, as sailing vessels round Cape Horn for this port usually do.

A tug went out to meet her, but she did not drop anchor. Her mail was taken out and thrown aboard, but no communication has yet been had regarding her. The tug returned, reporting that it is thought better to not attempt to board her till the weather moderates. It is not expected anything further during her voyage can be learned today.

CITY TRUSTEES.

At the meeting of the Board of Trustees Monday evening the contract for laying a one-inch water pipe with attachments along the park on the water front was let to Lang & McCall. The expense to the city will be about $425.

PASADENA AND PACIFIC.

The electric railway company was granted permission to erect poles in the middle of Oregon avenue for supporting trolley wires. The contract for the grading of South Second street was let to John D. Snyder of Los Angeles. An ordinance was adopted calling for the election of April 13. The Board of Supervisors was requested to delay the date of taking effect of its resolution canceling the Great Register of voters until after the municipal election, thus averting the danger of disqualifying voters at such election, as published in Monday's Times.

DISAPPEARANCE.

A report, which is confirmed from a source believed to be thoroughly reliable, has it that at a meeting of a certain secret society Saturday evening nominations were made for some of the city officers. The names of those alleged were: Trustees, E. M. Culp, S. F. Carpenter and Moses Hostetter; Treasurer, J. S. Wilson; Clerk, G. H. Thelmer. No nomination was made for Marshal. A large proportion of the men present, the report further says, were not satisfied with such action, and at five o'clock a meeting was held in which it was decided to give them an opportunity to act to their satisfaction has been called for the Steers Opera-house this evening.

THE ENOCH TALBOT.

A boat which seamen about the wharf say is the Enoch Talbot with a cargo of Los Angeles oil for San Francisco, which bark put to sea from San Pedro Monday. It was seen today by the off Port Los Angeles. The vessel is considered remarkable, for Capt. Johnson said to a Times reporter just before departing from San Pedro that he expected, with the fair wind prevailing, he would only consume two or three days in sailing to San Francisco. Her presence at so short a distance from the port of her departure gives ground for the fear that she has been disabled. She is an old vessel, and it is thought not improbable that she has worked serious injury to her hull.

REDLANDS.

The Valley and Mountains in Their Full Beauty.

REDLANDS, March 3.—(Regular Correspondence.) For the first time this season, the mountains and valley present that striking winter contrast which marks the supreme beauty of this section. The snow is now well down on the mountains. In fact there is snow within three miles of town, and last night a few flakes fell in town. Smiley Heights at an early hour had a little snow upon them. This is a condition which exists for a short time each winter and never results in damage. The precipitation of yesterday amounted to 1.4 inches.

PROHIBITION CONVENTION.

One might have thought last night an ideal time for holding the Prohibition convention, but the Prohibitionists themselves did not think so. The rain was falling and wind blowing, and the convention was accordingly adjourned until Friday evening, to meet at 7:30 in the Y.M.C.A. auditorium.

FRUIT PRICES.

The packers of oranges do not seem unanimous in the matter of raising prices, and the prospect now seems that there will be no immediate raise in the scale of prices.

VENTURA COUNTY.

RAIN AND SNOW HOUT THE IMPENDING DROUTH.

Farmers, Fruitmen and Stock-raisers Have Now Dismissed Further Fear of Financial Disaster—Interesting Notes on Politics.

VENTURA, March 3.—(Regular Correspondence.) The "oldest inhabitant," who predicted drouth and disaster, in consequence of the fact for the first time of record since 1888 there had been no rain in Ventura county during the month of February, has gone into retirement, and is not looked for until the rainfall exceeds the previous record for March, when he is expected to predict floods and inundations. Verily this has been a season prolific of material ready-made to the hand of the ardent and honorable weather prophet.

Ventura has three specialists in weather, and they usually hit the mark, each in turn, but this year they all proved to be false prophets, and a minion of the law was the only one to make a guess and guess it. In consequence of the effects of the legal fraternity are puffed up with pride, and are out-doing the best efforts of Bunsby as oracles on weather. Up to the present course of the storm, the figures including the mountain regions, in this city 1.43 inches have been recorded, and the snow which has fallen in the mountains, insuring the watershed supply for the coming summer. For the first time this season the rain has been recorded in the mountains, and the rivers are all slightly swollen.

The stockmen who have been in the region in the past few days, and who have been derided for financial disaster an assured fact if the drouth had continued two weeks longer. Monday's storm came in like a thief in the night, and the farmer to the bootblack, are indulging in congratulations.

This storm has been a very peculiar one in every respect. Sunday night there were no indications of a storm, the local storm flag indicating no rain. Then for this season of the year the fall and winter has been unprecedented, and wind up with this morning. Venturers were treated to an old-fashioned thunderstorm, and the farmers and stockmen were not ended, wind and cloud signs indicating a continuance of no mean proportions.

Snow in the mountains is looked for, but seldom or never does it fall in quantity in the valleys. Monday morning the snow was reported in the mountains in white from Saugus to Santa Paula. In and around Fillmore four inches fell; at within four miles of Ventura, along the line of the Ventura River one inch. The population, regardless of age, was all out, and the town was a scene of confusion. The town and the valley were covered with snow, and the mountains were covered with snow.

A WOMAN GOLD-MINER.

Col. T. W. Brooks of Pomona, who has been prospecting for mines and doing expert mining for capitalists in Arizona, for some weeks, writes that Miss Jennie Hilton has sold her share in the "Kansas" mine in the Harqua Hala region, for $35,000, and has got $20,000 cash down, with promissory notes and mortgage for the remaining $15,000, payable in sixty days. There is a good prospect of more money being made by the woman, who is a native of California, and is a perfect type of the new woman in modern affairs. She is probably the only woman engaged in mining operations in the United States, and it is likely there is no other woman anywhere who is a mining prospector in the full sense of the word.

Miss Hilton taught school in Fresno ten years ago, and later taught for a year in the Spadra school, west of Pomona. Her brother and an uncle were engaged in gold-mining, and she was an enthusiastic student of metallurgy and mineralogy. One summer she went down to Arizona to prospect for mines, and she was in the auriferous rocks of Southern Arizona. She went in camp with her brother, and became so devoted to the work of a mining prospector, that she was in the mountains and cañons of the Territory that she never returned to the schoolroom. She has been with her uncle and brother over in Arizona for a good part of New Mexico. With them she has endured all the hardships and privations incident to the life of mining.

She has been employed for a number of months at the Harqua Hala mines as an assayer for the company, and while there she and her brother became convinced that there was money in the rock located some seven miles distant. They fled upon the mining claim, and put in all their time and money in developing and opening up the mines as best they could in their limited way. That they have succeeded at last is indicated by the news of the sale to the Higgins brothers of Salt Lake, Utah. It is not likely that Miss Hilton will abandon her career as a miner. Col. Brooks writes that she has been a most successful prospector, and now that she has capital of her own she will probably go to developing mines at them. She has

SAN DIEGO COUNTY.

LOS ANGELES MEN WON IN THE TUG OF WAR.

A Generous Rainfall, Accompanied by High Wind—Counting on Another Excursion—An Admiral's Code of Etiquette—Test Blown Down.

SAN DIEGO, March 3.—(Regular Correspondence.) The blessed rain has come, and with it a violent windstorm. On Monday night the wind whistled and shrieked around the eaves and house corners like a medley of lost souls. The patter of the rain-drops was sweet music to the ears of expectant ranchers throughout the country. Considerable rain fell during the night and this morning the brisk downfall of water is most encouraging. The rain stopped early this evening and it is now pretty clear. The precipitation up to 5 o'clock was 1.32 inches for the storm, making 4.35 for the season.

TUG OF WAR.

The first contest in the tug-of-war series between the Los Angeles and San Diego teams was held on Monday night. The Los Angeles team won after a pull of twenty-one minutes and fifty-two seconds. A large amount of money changed hands on the result.

SAN DIEGO BREVITIES.

Admiral Breda, who has been endeavoring to teach San Diego lessons in etiquette, has created quite a stir by extending his invitation to a distinguished body of citizens over the telephone instead of by the usual dignified method as prescribed by usual social forms. People here say that if the admiral is to go on as the admiral, McAllister of this city, he should conduct himself according to Hoyle.

It is believed that the steamer Bonita, having in tow the disabled steamer Willamette Valley, which sailed for San Francisco on Monday, is having a very rough time of it at sea. When the steamers left this harbor they encountered heavy seas over the bar. When they gained deep water they set their fore and aft sails and ran rapidly before the gale from the south.

The forty-first birthday anniversary of Collector John C. Fisher was celebrated by a reception in his honor at the Hotel Brewster on Monday night. A gold-headed cane was presented to Mr. Fisher by his intimate friends.

The Chamber of Commerce is considering plans for the entertainment of excursionists from Southern California towns next Saturday. The proposed water carnival will be assisted and local excursions arranged.

The tug-of-war between the Los Angeles and San Diego teams was postponed on Monday because of the storm. The big test in which the contest was to be held, was blown down.

B. L. Blackstone has relinquished the secretaryship of La Mesa Land company. L. M. Parker succeeds him. Mr. Blackstone will attend to his land interests near Phoenix.

Among the arrivals at the Hotel Florence are: Dr. Forbes and family, New York; John Lyon and family, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Frank Hayes, C. A. Stevens.

W. Hamilton wheeled a mile at Coronado on Monday in 1:39.5. This is said to be the fastest record for the world, the best previous record being 1:40.

J. W. White, formerly of this city, is now the recording secretary of the Consolidated Mining Stock Exchange of Colorado Springs. He was born in this city on February 29. The youngster's next birthday anniversary will be in the year 1904.

The estate of Howard Clugston has been appraised at $24,373.

POMONA.

The Rain-A Woman Gold Miner is Rich.

POMONA, March 3.—(Regular Correspondence.) Of course the rain is having the attention of every one in Pomona Valley. It is doubtful if any gift of Jupiter P. has been so joyfully and thankfully received as the rain of many years as the present one. It has rained, with an intermission of three or four hours, since Monday morning, and the people here are delighted to know that it is likely to keep it up for a day or two longer. The China sugar-beet growers, the alfalfa and barley hay-makers, the farmers and every one who has any cattle or horses to feed cannot express too happily his feelings at this downfall of rain. It means a heavy crop of grain, and assures the best alfalfa-growers bountiful returns for their labor and investments. The heavy coating of snow on the mountains all about Pomona is a matter of congratulation among the people here, for that means water for the mountain streams and a supply for the artesian tunnels and wells.

A. J. Crookshank, president of the Exchange Bank of Santa Ana, called at the Police Station yesterday to consult with Chief Glass and the detectives in regard to the Dole forgery case. The police officials refuse to say whether or not he identified Dole.

The weather along the coast was far less stormy yesterday than the day before. San Pedro has suffered no damage from the storm. The British ship Dunboyne, which has been at the wharf at Port Los Angeles, anchored farther from shore to ride out the storm.

William Richards and Pat Carroll, friends out in the rain enjoying a jag, were discovered in the midst of a hard fight on the corner of First and Los Angeles streets last night at 10 o'clock. They passed the night in the jail booked as disturbers of the peace. One had four bits and the other $25.45 when searched.

M. C. Burkett stopped a man on the street Monday evening and accused him of wearing a coat which had been stolen from his buggy. Officer Perkins asked both men to come to the Police Station to have the matter settled. Mr. Burkett failed to completely establish the identification, so the other man kept the coat.

A drunk shortly after midnight this morning knocked at the door of the Police Station. He was anxious to have a hackman arrested who had hit him upon the nose for the apparent reason that he was walking the streets in the rain when a hack was idle. The officer was obliged to let the hobo's insulter go unavenged.

OIL TANKS COLLAPSE.
Thousands of Barrels of the Fluid Go to Waste.

Water Overseer Shafer awoke yesterday morning to find one of his zanjas full to overflowing of Los Angeles crude oil. During Monday night two of the large oil tanks on Buena Vista street in the rear of the Southern Pacific roundhouse collapsed and their contents were distributed about in rather a scandalous way. The tanks held 1200 barrels of oil each, and the zanja that runs along Buena Vista street at this place received the entire contents of one tank, while the tracks and grounds of the Southern Pacific were treated to the 1200 barrels from the other tank.

The cause of the disaster is not certainly known, but Overseer Shafer's theory is that the foundation of one of the tanks was insecure, and the cause of the collapse of the tank, and by its fall the other tank, which was over the zanja ditch, suffered a similar fate.

But very little water was in the ditch at the time, and as the gate near the Capitol Mill was closed, there is oil in the zanja now to the depth of about two feet.

The Water Overseer is finding some difficulty in finding the owner of the tank. The oil is supposed to be the property of a Mr. McCabe, who was reported to the Overseer as a millionaire bachelor living at No. 302 East First street. Inquiry at this place developed the fact that McCabe had moved, and his whereabouts was said by the landlady at No. 302 East First street to be a secret, which Mr. McCabe, for reasons unknown, desired to be kept a secret. McCabe's last accounts had not been found, though it is reported he has an office or room somewhere on Broadway.

The oil in the ditch is worth, at present prices, about $800, but the Water Overseer, while recognizing the value of the article, is willing to resign all claim to the oily stuff if the rightful owner will only rid the zanja of the mess and restore the ditch to its original purity.

Manufacturers' Meeting Postponed.
The Manufacturers' Association was represented by so small a number last evening in the assembly hall of the Chamber of Commerce that an adjournment was taken until a week from next Saturday, H. L. Story and President Chamberlain, who were to have delivered addresses, were present, but the weather is responsible for the lack of audience.

ONTARIO WILL NOT ENTERTAIN VISITORS.
On account of the bad weather the citizens of Ontario will not provide drives and other entertainments for excursionists today. The Santa Fe will, however, sell excursion tickets at $1.25 for the round trip as advertised.

THE WEATHER.

ANOTHER STEADY, GENTLE AND WELCOME DOWNPOUR.

Snow is Heavy in the Mountains and Reaches to a Low Level—Plenty of Water Assured for the Coming Year.

The rain is such a congenial guest that it has not yet worn out its welcome by any means, and the unmistakable prospect of its continuance is not the least enjoyable feature of its visit. The popularity of the local station of the United States Weather Bureau is at present directly proportionate to the glory of the storm. Visitors, telephone messages and telegrams are pouring in very fast. Engineers and irrigation companies of Arizona and California are glad to learn that the heavy snows are still falling in the mountains. George F. Franklin, observer, says that the gentleness at the beginning of the rain enabled the greater part of the subsequent downfall to sink into the ground. The preceding storm was not so good.

Last evening the storm had moved south and was central in Southern California, where very low pressure prevailed. During the past forty-eight hours the temperature has been falling steadily, and late last night was remarkably low. Los Angeles reports 44 deg. San Diego 48, San Luis Obispo 42, Fresno 42 and San Francisco 40. The unusual cold which accompanies the rain is one of the features. A telegram predicting snow during the night was received last evening, probably the first message of its kind ever sent to Los Angeles. Rough weather was booked for the coast last night.

Thunder was heard in the San Gabriel Valley yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, when rain began falling in this city. The precipitation in inches at 5 p.m. last evening for the past twenty-four hours at Los Angeles was .84, at San Diego 1.30, at San Luis Obispo .70, at Fresno .24, and at San Francisco .45. Pasadena has had .84 inches, and a flurry is still piling up in the mountains.

Yesterday at an early hour the Tehachapi and San Bernardino mountains had received a covering of four feet of snow. Echo Mountain has six inches and Mt. Lowe Springs two feet, with the prospects of more. The rainfall at Pasadena up to noon yesterday was 2.04 inches. All points in San Gabriel Valley report a greater precipitation than Los Angeles, which shows 1.57 inches for the storm, and 6.61 inches for the season up to 5 p.m. yesterday. At about 11:30 p.m. a flurry of hail came down right merrily and for a few minutes the streets were whitened with the frozen rain drops. At the hour of closing this report the indication of such a nature that a flurry of snow in the city would not be at all surprising.

SKINNY SUFFERER SAVED

What Do You Think Makes Strong Men Weak?

Experience of a Prominent North Dakota Politician Who Gained 40 Pounds in a Few Weeks.

Every man likes to be strong. Why shouldn't you be? Are you a tobacco user?

Of course you know that tobacco-users, as a rule, are away below normal weight, because tobacco destroys digestion and sets certain nerves on fire. That wears on the brain, saps its power and you gradually become impotent. It is called "lost manhood." You never get strong and stay that way until you are old and decrepit. Read what he says:

ONE BOX DID IT.

"BYRON, Wells Co., N. D., July 25.

"Gentlemen: One box of No-To-Bac cured me of the tobacco habit, both smoking and chewing, after having used the weed for nearly forty years. My health is much better, nerves strong and steady, and I have gained over forty pounds in flesh. I have recommended No-To-Bac to some of my friends, all of whom have been cured. I firmly believe that No-To-Bac will do for others what it has done for me. I heartily recommend it to all those who have become slaves to the use of tobacco, and desire to be emancipated."

"J. A. WILLIAMS, County Auditor."

Now don't you think No-To-Bac worth a trial, especially when you buy from your own druggist under absolute guarantee of cure? Get our booklet, "Don't Tobacco Spit and Smoke Your Life Away," written guarantee of cure and free sample, mailed for the asking. Address: Sterling Remedies Co., Chicago or New York.
